

I am writing to express my support for the existing Wisconsin Do Not Call law. It substantially reduced the volume of calls to my residence from telemarketers, and I am very happy about that. I object to and oppose the FCC taking any action that would have the effect of weakening the existing Wisconsin law. Thank you for your attention to my comment.